VOICES

O Quam Gloriosum

Conducted by Nicholas Scott-Burt

7.30pm Saturday 8th April 2017
St John the Baptist, Belton

Following on from many successful tours in Europe and the UK since 1998, Charnwood Voices and supporters are jetting off to Tuscany from April 18-22 2017. The choir will be giving concerts in the Duomo in Florence, in the Cathedral of San Martino in Lucca, and in the church of St Jacobo and St Filippo in Certaldo Alto. We will also be visiting Pisa and St Gimignano as well as sampling the delights of a pasta factory and a Chianti vineyard!

We are all excited at the prospect of singing such glorious music in such wonderful venues and, of course, delighted that you are able to join us this evening for our 'pre-tour' concert, in what has become our new home, the village of Belton.

MUSIC DIRECTOR: Nicholas Scott-Burt

Dr Nicholas Scott-Burt enjoys a busy and varied freelance career as a composer, conductor, organist and pianist. He has been Music Director of Charnwood Voices since 2015, and also conducts Daventry Choral Society. He is organist at Bablake School, Coventry, teaches piano (classical and jazz), organ and composition there, and also at Uppingham School and the Robert Smyth Academy in Market Harborough; he is a classical and jazz examiner for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, and has contributed widely as a composer and arranger to recent ABRSM piano publications.

As a composer he has written over 100 works for a broad variety of media, from 'pop songs' to symphonic scores – most recently completing a number of piano works (A Little Jazz Piano Sonata in C, Minimalis I and Mikrokoncert) and last year a Trio en Chocolat composed for his violinist wife Cathy and cellist son Harry, who (with him as pianist) perform frequently as the Scott-Burt Piano Trio.

Nick is very much looking forward to his first tour with Charnwood Voices.
